

Have you ever asked yourself "What's the point of school when Google knows everything?"

Join us and learn how the American International School of Zagreb can prepare you to be successful in an unknown yet dynamic future. At AISZ you'll acquire the skills and knowledge needed to be successful - either within Croatia or anywhere else in the world you choose to be.

Would you like to balance your strong academic pathway with a community service opportunity, playing in sports team in another country or the ability to convince others of your point of view in our debate club?

How about participating in art classes or in cutting-edge science experiments?

You can even play in our rock band and record your own music in our state of the art recording studio.

At the American International School of Zagreb you learn transferable skills and the necessary character dispositions for success in an unknown yet dynamic future.

So, how about a visit?

Join us on Saturday, May 25, 2019 from 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM at our new state-of-the-art campus. RSVP by May 20th.

In the heart of Zagreb where 260 students from Croatia and around the world are ready to welcome you. Join us and experience the future today.

To register to attend our open house please go to our website and follow the registration link at the top of the home page www.aisz.hr.